ART FAIR

THE ART GOES ON

On the heels of the success of the Beirut Art Fair, founder Laure d'Hauteville collaborates with Paul de Rosen and Joanna Chevalier as artistic director for the inaugural edition of Menart – the first international modern and contemporary art fair dedicated to the Middle East and the Maghreb. Twenty international galleries from Tunis to Riyadh will showcase more than 60 artists from the Arab world over a four-day period. Menart will take place in person and online in the salons of the auctioneer Cornette de Saint Cyr in Paris from May 27-30. Menart-fair.com
