Paris: Qatar Ambassador to the French Republic HE Sheikh Ali bin Jassim Al-Thani inaugurated the Qatari pavilion participating in the MENART Fair for Modern and Contemporary Art, which aims to showcase the works of artists from the Middle East and Maghreb countries, and was organized at Cornette de Saint Cyr, Paris.

During a tour of the exhibition, along with Laure d'Hauteville, the director of the fair, HE the Ambassador stressed that the Qatari participation in this artistic event is a reflection of the richness of artistic and cultural exchanges between the State of Qatar and France, which contributes to deepening relations between the two friendly countries at all levels.

The exhibition witnessed Qatari and several other countries' participation, including the Eiwani Al Gassar Gallery, a prominent platform in the regional and local artistic and cultural scene in the State of Qatar, which exhibited the works of talented Qatari visual artists Shuaa Ali and Ahmed Noah.
